LEAVE & ATTIRE POLICY

Workplace dress-code expectations and leave entitlements

STATUS: DRAFT FOR REVIEW Effective date and final administrative rules have not yet been provided.

Policy ID	HR-POL-001	Version	1.0 - Draft
Policy owner	Human Resources (proposed)	Review status	Pending confirmation

Purpose. This document records the currently provided workplace attire rules and leave quantities. It is a draft and should be reviewed by HR before formal issue.

1. Dress Code and Attire

HR-ATT-001 Monday to Thursday - formal attire. Formal attire is expected for both men and women from Monday through Thursday.

HR-ATT-002 Friday - business casual. Business-casual attire is permitted on Fridays. Men may wear polo T-shirts as part of Friday business-casual attire.

HR-ATT-003 Traditional attire. Women may wear a saree or kurti on any working day, including Monday through Thursday and Friday.

Interpretation note: Traditional attire is listed as permitted any working day. HR should confirm any further details of formal or business-casual standards before publication.

2. Leave Entitlements

The following leave quantities were supplied for inclusion in this policy. The applicable entitlement period (for example, annual or another leave cycle) has not been specified and must be confirmed by HR.

Leave category	Quantity	Notes
HR-LEV-001 | Casual Leave	10	Period and usage rules to be confirmed.
HR-LEV-002 | Flexi Leave	2	Definition and scheduling rules to be confirmed.
HR-LEV-003 | Earned Leave	15	Accrual and carry-forward rules to be confirmed.
HR-LEV-004 | Sick Leave	10	Documentation requirements to be confirmed.

3. Details to Confirm Before Publication

- Entitlement period and unit (for example, per year, per leave cycle, or another period).
- Eligibility, joining/leaving-year proration, and when leave balances become available.
- Leave application, approval authority, notice expectations, and emergency/sick-leave procedure.
- Carry-forward, lapse, and encashment rules for each leave category.
- Rules for weekends, public holidays, half-days, and combining different leave categories.
- Effective date, approving authority, and the final policy owner.

Publication note: Do not treat this draft as a complete leave policy until the items above have been reviewed and confirmed by the authorized HR owner.